VOL. VI. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1870 NO. 23

The Daily Sentinel.
JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

A LITTLE WOMAN.

"In a little precious diamond
What a splendor meets the eyes!
In a little lump of sugar
How much of sweetness lies!
So in a little woman,
Love grows and multiplies;
You recollect the proverb says—
'A word unto the wise.'

"A pepper corn is very small,
But seasons every dinner
More than all other condiments,
Although 'tis sprinkled thinner;
Just so a little woman is,
If love will let you win her
There's not a joy in all the world
You would not find within her.

"And as within the little rose,
You'll find the richest dyes,
And in a little grain of gold
Much price and value lies;
As from a little balsam
Much odor does arise,
So in a little woman
There is a taste of paradise.

"The skylark and the nightingale,
Though small and light of wing,
Yet warble sweeter in the grove
Than all the birds that sing
And so a little woman,
Though a very little thing
Is sweeter than all other sweets,
Even flowers that bloom in Spring."

"WHAT I KNOW ABOUT FARMING"—AFTER GREELEY.

BY MARK TWAIN.

"Turnips should never be pulled; it injures them. It is better to send a boy up and let him shake the tree.

"The guano is a fine bird, but great care is necessary in rearing it. It should not be imported earlier than June or later than September. In the winter it should be kept in a warm place, where it can hatch out its young.

"It is evident that we are to have a backward season for grain. Therefore it will be well for the farmer to begin setting out his cornstalks and planting his buckwheat cakes in July instead of August.

"Concerning the pumpkin—This berry is a favorite with the natives of the interior of England, who prefer it to the gooseberry for the making of fruit cake, and who likewise give it the preference over the rasp berry for feeding cows, as being more filling and full as satisfying. The pumpkin is the most esculent of the orange family that will thrive in the North, except the gourd and one or two varieties of the squash. But the custom of planting it in the front yard with the shrubbery is fast going out of vogue, for it is now generally conceded that the pumpkin, as a shade tree, is a failure.

Fanny Fern tells the following story of her first meeting with Horace Greely: He had agreed to take tea at her house, and Mr. Parton gave her a special injunction to have some stale bread on the table, as Mr. Greely, he said, never touched hot biscuit.

This was accordingly done, and when the great editor sat down to supper a large supply of dry bread was placed close to his plate.

He, however, was not content with this but peering across the table in his nearsighted way at the biscuit opposite, he stretched out his arm and proceeded to help himself, and actually made his meal of them. Mrs. Parton expressed her surprise at this, and said, "Why, Mr. Greely, I read the Tribune for so long a time that I thought that you abominated hot bread." "Fanny," replied the sage Horace, helping himself to another biscuit, "do you always practice what you preach? I don't."

BEAUTIFUL MYTH.—In Eastern poetry they tell of a wondrous tree, upon which grew golden apples and silver bells, and every time a breeze went by and shook the fragrant branches, a shower of these golden apples fell, and the living bells chimed and tinkled forth their airy ravishments. On the gospel tree there grow sweet blossoms and bells more melodious than those which mingled with the pomegranates on Aaron's vestment—holy feeling, heaven-taught joys; and when the Holy Spirit breathes upon the evangelized so there are a shaking down of mellow fruits, and the flow of healthy music, whose gentle tones and joyous echoing are wafted through all the recesses of the soul.

MRS. PARTINGTON ON COSMETICS.—"That's a new article for beautifying the complexion," said Mrs. Bibb, holding up a small bottle for Mrs Partington to look at. She looked up from toeing out a woolen sock for like, and took the bottle in her hand.

"Is it indeed?" said she. "Well, they may get up ever so many rostrums for beautifying the complexion, but, depend upon it the less people have to do with bottles of it, the better. My neighbor, Mrs. Blotch has been using a bottle for a good many years for her complexion, and her nose looks like a rupture of Mount Vociferous, with the burning lather running all over the contagious territory."

THE FORCE OF THE SEA.—During a succession of fierce storms and hurricanes which recently swept over the north coast of Scotland, and which lasted the greater portion of three days and three nights, the splendid new breakwater, in course of construction at the harbor of Wick, was battered down by the strength and fury of the waves, the largest of which measured from 40 to 50 feet in height. The mole and parapet of the breakwater, which measured 150 yards in length, and which was constructed at a cost of $500,000, is now reduced to a shapeless mass.

A GEM FROM AN OLD BOOK.—It has been eloquently and truly said that if Christianity were compelled to flee from the mansions of the great, the academies of philosophers, the halls of legislators, or the throngs of busy men, we should find her last retreat with women at the fire. Her last audience would be the children gathering round the knee of a mother; the last sacrifice, the secret prayer escaping in silence from her lips, and heard, perhaps, only at the throne of God.

A sharp student was called up by the worthy professor of a celebrated college, and asked the question, "Can a man see without eyes?" "Yes, sir," was the prompt reply. "How, sir," cried the astonished professor, "can a man see without eyes? Pray, sir, how do you make that out?" "He can see with one, sir," replied the ready witted youth; and the whole class shouted with delight at the triumph over metaphysics.

An old agricultural laborer in England tried a muscular method of evangelizing his family. Being remonstrated with by the pastor for not "bringing up" his boys as he should, he replied: "I dunno ow tis, sir; I order em down to pray night and mornin', and when they won't go down I knocks 'em down—and yet they ain't good!"

APPLES VERSUS DYSPEPSIA.—An eminent French physician ascribes the decrease of dyspepsia and bilious disorders in Paris to the greater consumption of apples, which he deems an admirable prophylactic and tonic, as well as a very nutritious and easily digested article of food. It is estimated that the Parisians devour one hundred millions of apples every winter.

The tract of land contains about twenty-two hundred acres, of which seven hundred acres are cleared, under fence and in good condition for cultivation. A large part of it is in cultivation this year. The soil is fertile, neighborhood good, labor cheap and plentiful. The dwelling house is large and commodious, with all necessary and convenient outhouses. The Stables, Barns, Houses for laborers &c. are good and numerous. This farm lies immediately on navigable water and has passing through it good water power, where there is now a Grist and Saw Mill and Cotton Gin. The place is desirable for conducting large Mercantile operations, and is a beautiful location for a town or colony. A WORD TO THE PEOPLE.

Our people are attached to their native soil and climate. They desire to lay their bones by the side of their fathers. They are anxious to improve their own fortunes, to aid in building up the State and to develope her resources. Can they do it under the hardships imposed by their present condition? Can they live and prosper under the Constitution of the State as it is, and the legislative action of the Radicals? Impossible.

Our people have never labored harder or been more enterprising or more determined to improve their condition, than they have since we have been under Radical rule, and yet it is palpable, that the condition of a vast majority of our people pecuniarly, grows no better. Most men find it harder to pay the taxes imposed this year than last, although they are lighter, except the taxation of the towns and cities. And as to improvement there is no evidence of growth, except in a few cases where some have been prosperous enough to build a few stores and dwellings. No new factories have been built, no new mines opened and but few enterprises started promising permanent prosperity to the State.

OUR INDEBTEDNESS.

The private indebtedness of the people we can suggest no relief for, but economy, industry and an honest purpose to pay as far as we can. Our public debt and want of credit is a serious draw back. It would have been bad enough, if it had not been increased a dollar after the war; but by Radical waste, extravagance and robbery, it has been increased from $14,000,000 to $35,000,000. Can we pay it? Can we live and pay even the interest in our present condition? It is useless to shirk this question any longer. It is worse than criminal to promise to pay, when we cannot. No one wants to repudiate a just debt. But much of this debt is not just. Much of it was contracted in violation of the Constitution and against the positive remonstrances of the tax-payers. Many who bought the bonds knew they were buying "stolen goods," and the price they paid satisfied them, they were buying a "pig in the bag." The state and our Railroads have received no consideration for them and the public knew of "the swindle" when they bought them. But as an honest people we scorn to repudiate. When individuals are in debt beyond their means of paying, what is the usual resort? Do creditors exact the last dollar and run the risk of losing all? Wise men do not act thus. They propose a compromise. Why cannot the creditors of the State do this? Why should not the next Legislature do this? We throw out the suggestion for reflection.

NO INSURRECTION.

We heard it intimated some days ago, that Gov. Holden was writing a Proclamation declaring the Counties of Alamance and Caswell no longer in insurrection.—Why does he delay this matter? Never was any thing more ridiculous, than the declaration at first, that those Counties were in insurrection. Judges Pearson, Dick and Settle knew perfectly well that in a legal sense there was no insurrection, and yet they have sustained the idea throughout, that they were in insurrection. Why this? Was it to enable Holden to carry out the preconcerted plan of forcing the election in favor of Radicalism by the aid of the military? This is the public judgment.

Webster gives a correct definition of the term. He says, "insurrection is a rising against civil or political authority; the open and active opposition of a number of persons to the execution of law in a city or State." Every one knows that no such state of things existed in Alamance and Caswell before or during or since the Holden war was inaugurated.

Is the object of Gov. Holden in not declaring those Counties out of insurrection, to enable Kirk and others to get away?—Judges Dick and Settle by their strange decision protects the scoundrels so long as they are in Alamance or Caswell, as long as they are in insurrection.

U. S. SENATOR.—Our remarks on this subject, perhaps, were not as carefully or as happily expressed as we designed, as we observe they are not understood as we intended. Our simple object was not to stifle discussion on any subject, but it was designed to guard our friends against such a discussion as would provoke discord. It is perfectly legitimate to discuss the question, if our friends desire it, whether or not the choice of U. S. Senator or to fill any other office, should be made, with or without regard to the disabilities of the candidate; but in doing this, we designed to suggest, that all disparaging allusions to one class or the other should be avoided. The article of "Citizen of Yancey" in reply to a "Citizen of Catawba," which was crowded out on yesterday appears to-day. His next article discussing the general question appears to-morrow.

An additional Steamer will soon be placed on the line from Washington to Tarboro.

KIRK AND HIS LAMBS.

The attempt on the part of Gov. Holden to bolster up the character of these scoundrels only reacted upon himself.

A friend writing us from Yanceyville says: "Our beautiful Court House was greatly damaged and left in a most filthy condition and full of vermin by Kirk's men. The scamps stole many valuable books and several reams of legal cap paper, all of which, I think, was done after Kirk left and while the pious Major Yates was in command."

Yates and Banner are spoken of as scoundrels not at all inferior to Burgin, in malice and meanness. Our friend sends us the following document, duly sealed and stamped showing it to be a veritable paper, which was left in one of the offices of the Court House at Yanceyville. We commend it especially to some of our Tennessee cotemporaries in the pending contest in that State:

To those to whom these presents shall come, be it known, that

Whereas, it has been represented to me by John C. Wilson, that certain property of his, to wit: One valuable mare, one horse and three cows, have recently been seized in the county of Washington, and State of Tennessee, by certain parties from North Carolina, without due process of law, and removed into North Carolina, where they are now held and illegally detained;

And whereas, it is a notorious fact that justice is not obtainable in behalf of a loyal man in the Courts of North Carolina;

Therefore, I have advised the said John C. Wilson to take a sufficient number of the late members of Kirk's regiment, to recover possession of the said property by force, and to go with them into North Carolina and take possession of said property and bring it to me; and have agreed with him, on his own behalf, and on behalf of the members of Kirk's regiment who may accompany him upon such expedition, that if he and they shall take possession of said property, as aforesaid, and deliver the same forthwith to me, I will defend him and them, and each of them, from and against all prosecutions on account thereof, upon the receipt of one hundred ($100) dollars at the time of the delivery of the said property; Provided, the said Wilson and his comrades shall not kill any person in taking possession of said property, and provided, also, that the said Wilson shall furnish sufficient proof that the said property was taken from him in Tennessee without due process from the Courts of Tennessee; and also, that I will, upon the same conditions, warrant him and his comrades against being delivered up to the authorities of North Carolina, upon any requisition from the Governor of North Carolina to Gov. W. G. Brownlow.

In witness, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Jonesboro', Tennessee, this 20th day of September, 1866.

J. MILTON SCUDDER, [Seal.]

Attest,
CHAS. DAWES.

HABEAS CORPUS CASES.

We learn that Judge Battle is preparing, for publication, a full and accurate report of all the proceedings in the habeas corpus cases in behalf of the Alamance and Caswell prisoners, before Chief Justice Pearson, of the Supreme Court of the State, and Judge Brooks, of the United States District Court, for the District of North Carolina, and also in the case of Lt. Col. Burgin, before Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, for the 4th Circuit. He will publish, likewise, a report of the proceedings before Chief Justice Pearson and Associate Justices Dick and Settle, in what are called the Ku Klux cases from Alamance.

We learn, further, that such explanations will be given as to render the account intelligible to other than professional readers.

CORRECTION.—Some days ago, upon the authority of one or more of our exchanges, we repeated the statement attributed to John Sikes in reference to the murder of Mr. Hart of Greene, upon which we made some remarks, which bore hardly upon the accused. We have just met with the following card of Mr. Sikes, denying entirely the statement attributed to him, which we clip from the Greenville Expositor. That paper says, that the card is the veritable statement of Mr. Sikes, that he is not in prison and that he resides in Greenville.—We therefore cheerfully publish Sikes' contradiction, disavowing all intention to do any one injustice in any way, much less in a matter so serious. We are at a loss to conceive how any one could have given publicity to a statement of this kind, which was not based upon undoubted testimony. We see in addition to the above, an affidavit to the same effect made by Sikes.

EDITOR OF THE EXPOSITOR:

Permit me to correct a falsehood that is going the rounds of the papers to the effect that "One John Sikes, who is now in Greenville Jail, has turned State's evidence against the murderers of Jesse Hart, and says that he knows Joseph Dixon to be one, together with many others." This whole matter is a most infamous falsehood. I have never been in Greenville Jail as all the citizens of Greenville know, nor do I know anything about the murderers of Mr. Hart, nor have I at any time ever told any one that I did. I humbly request the papers of the State which has given publicity to the report, to do me the justice of correcting the same,

and oblige,
respectfully,
JOHN SIKES

N. C. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—We are informed that at the request of the President, the Rev. Dr. J. B. Smith will read a paper before the Society on the subject of "what are the most remunerative crops for Central North Carolina."

Dr. Smith is a native of Delaware, raised on a farm near the Delaware River, has paid great attention to agricultural subjects, and will present to the Society many original and instructive views. We are glad to see this subject discussed. We are confident that under the new system of voluntary labor, changes must be made in order to derive greater pecuniary profits from our lands.

IRON SHIPS.—Since the loss of the British war - iron clad steamer, "Captain," which went down in a storm with 500 persons on board, all of whom were drowned, and other casualties, the utility of iron ships is being strongly doubted. It is said that the corroding influence of salt water renders them unseaworthy in a short time. Wooden ships, it is believed, are more durable than iron.

For the Sentinel.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.

MR. EDITOR:—I took occasion to express my views in relation to this subject in an article, which appeared in the SENTINEL of the 14th inst.

The SENTINEL, in an editorial, since my communication was published, has enforced certain restrictions in regard to the farther discussion of the relative claims of gentlemen for the United States Senatorship; and I consider the restrictions imposed, just and proper under the circumstances.—I do not propose, therefore, to enter into any farther consideration of the main question involved in these discussions, but trust I may be allowed to say, with much deference, that I have not had occasion to change my opinion in relation thereto.—But what I may have to say in this article Mr. Editor, shall be said with the utmost regard for your views of propriety.

I learn exceptions have been taken by some Conservative friends in whom I have great confidence, and among whom I am disposed to count "Citizen of Catawba," to that part of my communication, referring to those whose political disabilities were removed, through the agency of Deweese, Abbott and Pool.

Since the article in question was written, I have been informed that there are some worthy gentlemen, and perhaps not a few, whose disabilities were removed by Congress, through the agency of these men, but that these gentlemen had no knowledge of any purpose on the part of these men, to procure their removal, until the fact was accomplished. Hence I deem it just and proper in me to say that, to such gentlemen, I did not intend to refer in any objectionable sense, and "Citizen of Catawba" might have seen this if, in his elaborate criticism, he had attended properly to that part of my article where I particularly mention "Clingman and others like him."

I wish to say further, in this connection, that I only intended, by my comments on Col. Cowan's policy, to counteract, as far as possible, what I conceived to be an erroneous impression, which, I thought, his communication was eminently calculated to fasten upon the public mind, even before the question at issue could come before the members of the Legislature, in whose wisdom and discretion I think we may all safely confide. I will add, since my article appeared in the SENTINEL, I have heard many good things of Col. Cowan as a Conservative, and nothing bad, whereof I am glad."

But, Mr. Editor, while I would be pleased to exonerate all who claim to belong to the Democratic Conservative party, yet to be candid I must say I believe there are some, who positively compromised principle, not to say, sold themselves, to procure the removal of their political disabilities. Not only so, but in my opinion, some of this last named class, sustain very suspicious relations to the "Railroad Ring" as I expect to be able to show, by evidence which I believe the public will regard as conclusive. Still, I would do no injustice even to men of this class among whom I learn there are some aspirants for senatorial honors. But if in fact, these aspirants sustain any improper relation to the "Ring," or have at any time hitherto, sustained such relation, they have no right to expect such honor at the hands of the people who have been outraged by the "Ring" to a degree unparalleled in the history of this or of any other civilized country. Or, if any man in any position from the Chief Executive of the State down (or rather in our case from the Executive of the State up) has ever, at any time, received one cent as counsel or otherwise to aid in consummating the fraudulent purposes of the "Ring," he has in my humble opinion forfeited all claims to public or private confidence. For instance, I can well conceive how a lawyer may recieve a fee to defend a man who has been guilty of theft; but I cannot conceive how he can receive a fee to aid the thief in consummating the theft itself.

But I fear I have been digressing somewhat. I wish now to make my acknowledgments to my "Catawba" friend for whatever sympathy he may feel for me on account of my "diseased brain." Allowing that my brain is diseased, (and "Catawba" ought to know) still I am consoled by the reflection that my communication "expresses the sentiments of a number of influential and earnest supporters of the Democratic Conservative party."

I quote from the SENTINEL's editorial notice of my communication. Now I would ask "Catawba" if all these "influential and earnest supporters of the Democratic Conservative party," are men of diseased brains? They must be, according to the authority before us, because they entertain precisely the very same sentiments which has subjected me to that imputation.

The SENTINEL says, my article "expresses the sentiments of a number of influential and earnest supporters, &c.

"Catawba" says these very sentiments are the "out croppings of a diseased brain."

Then we arrive at the inevitable conclusion, that all who entertain these sentiments are men of diseased brains. Well! if "Catawba" is right in his opinion, I am not so sure, after all our boasted intelligence, if insanity don't predominate in the Conservative party. It will take an immense asylum to accommodate all these insane folks. But possibly there may yet be some mistake about this insanity question.

Now I do hope my good "Catawba" friend will reconsider the matter, and not send such a "number of influential and earnest supporters of the Democratic Conservative party," to the asylum simply because they happen to differ with him slightly on a mere abstract question of policy.

But I may be laying myself open to the charge of insanity again, so I will quit.

Respectfully,
CITIZEN OF YANCEY.

Half-Alive.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain, but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently. How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve, and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION PLATFORM IN ALABAMA.

The Democratic and Conservative party of the State of Alabama, in entering upon the contest for the redemption of the State Government from the Radical usurpers who now control it, adopt and declare as their platform.

1. That we stand ready to obey the constitution of the United States and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, and the constitution and the laws of the State of Alabama, so long as they remain in force and unrepealed.

2. That we are opposed to the unjust, extravagant and unnecessary taxation; both State and Federal, with which our people are now oppressed; to the wasteful squandering and embezzlement of the public money and public property, and we are in favor of the strictest economy in public expenditures, and of a rigid and prompt accountability of all public officers.

That we are in favor of law and order, fair and peaceful elections, free from fraud and corruption; and that we shall demand a fair count of the ballots cast.

That we are in favor of confiding the government of the State to our own people, to men of known capacity and integrity, who accept office for the general good and do not seek official position in public plunder.

5 That the party now in control of this State have obtained power by usurpation, against the will of the people and they have imposed enormous and unnecessary taxes; they have created unnecessary and useless offices for the sole purpose of feeding their needy followers; they have, by profligate extravagance and corruption, increased the debt of the State many millions of dollars, and have even refused to execute the provisions of their own Constitution relating to the classification of State Senators and their tenure of office; and by numerous other enormities in legislation they have shown themselves unfit to govern the people of a free State, and they ought to be ejected, through the ballot box, from the offices they hold in defiance of the wishes and in contempt of the interests of the people.

THE NATIONAL TAXES—The following statement of the provisions of the law of July 14th, in regard to sources of revenue, is compiled from official sources, and should be kept for reference:

Special taxes, including those on bankers, will cease May 1, 1871, excepting those connected with fermented liquors, spirits, and tobacco

Taxes on gross receipts will cease October 1, 1870.

Taxes on sales will cease October 1, 1870, except those on sales of tobacco, spirits, wines, and those paid by stamps.

Taxes on income, including salaries, will be 2½ per cent on incomes over $2,000, instead of 5 per cent on incomes over $1,000.

Taxes on legacies will cease October 1, 1870.

Taxes on passports will cease October 1, 1870.

The use of stamps will cease October 1, 1870, for promissory notes for less than $100, for receipts, and for canned and preserved fish.

The receipts from these sources in the fiscal year 1870 were estimated at $83,016,000.—The reductions have been officially estimated at $55,000,000.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,

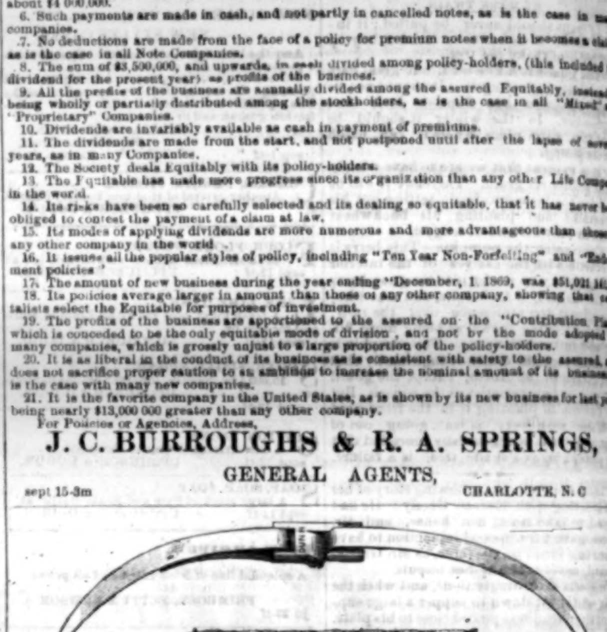

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,021,[illegible]
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan" which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1870.

☞ Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Back Again.—The Local is again at his post, after ten days absence enjoying the figues and fevers, with the usual accompaniments of calomel and quinine, in the country. Of what he saw, heard and felt, tasted and smelt, he reserves the relation to a more opportune season.

Twelve Bridal bonnets ordered from Hester's Millinery establishment yesterday; indicates something.

Mayor's Court, Tuesday, Sept. 20th.

Robert Ruth, an old offender, charged with being drunk in the shop of Robt. Hall, col. and refusing to pay for a meal which he ordered and ate. Bob was released on a promise to leave the city within an hour.

Chas Stronach, col. was arraigned charged with having violated the ordinance in regard to rapid riding through the streets. As it appeared that the horse upon which he was mounted had resolved to have his own way, and the rider really possessed no power to control the rapidity of his motions, Charles was allowed to go on his way rejoicing.

His Honor issued a warrant for the arrest of James Jones, col. and Sam Cross, col. for getting up a pugilistic side show, in front of the Yarboro House, on Monday morning. Jones made his appearance, but the search for Cross has, up to this writing been unsuccessful.

Our Markets.—In some things our local provision market is plentifully stocked—in others there is a lamentable scarcity. Green corn continues to come in, and so do water melons. We saw several loads of the latter on the Square yesterday morning. Meats of various kinds are tolerable fair, but butter seems to have played out altogether; only one small lot visible yesterday morning, and on that the owner seemed determined to "make his Jack." Any of our country friends who may chance to have butter, eggs, chickens, ducks, geese or turkeys on hand now, would doubtless find a good market for them, if they would bring them in.

Wilmington Street.—If any one doubts that the spirit of improvement and go-aheaditiveness does not reign in this city, let him or her just take the trouble to perambulate the above named street and all doubts will at once be put to flight.

Just a short distance below the Catholic Church, Joseph Prarie, Esq., has a number of workmen busily engaged in constructing four large three story brick buildings, which, when completed, will present a very imposing appearance. We understand that the upper stories are designed for private residences and will be furnished with all the modern improvements and conveniences.

Passing down the street, a short distance above the buildings now being erected by Judge Fowle and Mr. Banting, it will be seen that preparations are being made for the erection of another large brick store.—This is the enterprise of William Upchurch, Esq., another of our public-spirited and energetic business men. Though we have not seen the plan of this building, yet from the dimensions of the foundation, we should imagine that it is to be no small affair.

If this building fever, which Wilmington street seems at present to be afflicted with, should continue, Fayetteville street must spur up or it will soon be thrown in the shade.

Personal.—We notice among late arrivals at the Yarborough House, Rev. S. Y. McMaster, St. Pauls, Min.; Rev. Dr. Harald, Maj. Mason and Dr. Meeker, of Baltimore; Gen. M. W. Ransom, Hon. J. N. Horton, Col. Walter Clark, S. S. Royster and Maj. W. A. Smith, of North Carolina.

A Challenge.—Our State Agricultural Fair has offered a premium of a silver Fireman's Trumpet to the best hand engine, and I am authorized by Mechanics No. 2 of this city to say we intend entering our engine and offer a challenge to any hand engine in the State of the same calibre. Calibre of No. 2: 5 inch chamber; 8 inch stroke; 9 16 nozzle.

Respectfully, &c.
N. B. BROUGHTON,
Foreman Mech. No. 2.

(State papers please circulate.)

Two Daily Northern Mails.—It may not be generally known, but such, we learn at the Post Office here, is the fact, that two Northern mails leave and arrive at Raleigh daily—one by Weldon, the other by Greensborough and Danville. The time for closing the mails is as follows:

North via Weldon,	8 A. M.
" " Greensboro' & Danville	6:30 P. M.
Eastern Mail	6:20 A. M.
Western "	6.30 P. M.

We republish the challenge of No. 2, fire engine on account of additions. Read it. State papers will make the correction.

Impostor.—A friend writes us from Orange, that the lame man calling himself Ashley, and who said that he was a Confederate soldier just from a hospital, to whom we alluded some days ago, was an impostor.

Volume One, Number One,—of the "Battleboro' Advance," edited and published by Cicero W. Harris, Esq., at Battleboro', N. C., is on our table. It is "Democratic as understood at the present time," and is well gotten up in matter and manner, and has our best wishes for success in every respect.

Another Club.—We are under obligation to W. C. Erwin, Esq., Morganton, for a club of subscribers in Burke, accompanied by the cash. Our subscription lists are rapidly growing, thanks to our friends in the various parts of the State; we will study to deserve their kindness.

Accidental Shooting.—On Monday, Judson Ray and John H. Dennis, two young men of this city, went out in a wagon some 18 miles toward the Granville line, for the purpose of hunting. In the afternoon, when near the river, the dog treed a squirrel near the road and they went out to shoot it. On returning to the wagon, which had been left standing in the road, young Dennis got in with his gun in his hand, and just at that time the mule started off and, by some means, his gun went off, lodging the contents in the thigh of young Ray, cutting the femoral artery. Dr. John Penny was called to him, but all efforts to save him were vain, and he died in about half an hour after being shot. Special Coroner Magnin summoned a jury of inquest, but on account of the absence of some persons to be called as witnesses, after viewing the body, the jury adjourned over to Saturday next. There is no doubt, however, that the shooting was accidental.

Brook Ground.—We noticed, yesterday, the workmen busy digging out the foundation for another new building between the new State National Bank and Fentress's corner, belonging to Mr. Phil. Thiem. This building will close the gap on the old burnt square, and Fentress's corner will be known as Fentress's corner no more, and the ugly old vacancy of five years ago will be the most compactly and best built section of Fayetteville street, including Tucker Hall, the State National Bank, R. B. Andrews' Clothing emporium, and this new store of Mr. Thiem's.

Sauce for the Black Goose but not for the White Gander.—Holden has disbanded his troops and sent them home, but with this difference, as noticed by the Newbern Journal of Commerce: All Capt. Hancock's white troops had to doff their soldier coats, arms, &c., while the negro troops were allowed to retain theirs, even down to the canteens. Does the Governor mean to make the State pay for the arms and uniforms he has allowed his negro troops to retain, or does he mean to cheat New Hampshire out of them?

First In.—Sheriff McCall, of the good old Conservative county of Caldwell, arrived in Raleigh yesterday morning, and settled up in full with the Treasurer for the taxes due the State from his county. We learn that he is the first in the State to make his settlement.

The amount is as follows:

For public or general tax		$1,943.73
Special for Penitentiary	$748 64
" " Schools	741 64
" " M. & A. Turnpike	44 62	1,531.90
Poll tax for educational purposes		729.16
Total,		$4,204.79

Destitute.—Yesterday morning we saw on the streets, a man perfectly destitute of all means of subsistence, and apparently in the last stage of consumption. He gave his name as L. F. Guy, and says he is from Maryland, and came to this State about three months ago. He has been lying very ill at a house about three miles from the city, and came here yesterday to see if the County Commissioners would send him to the Poor House.

The Board of Commissioners not being in session, and the man appearing to be in a very critical condition, Commissioner Caswell took the responsibility of sending him to the above named institution, where, it is hoped, he will be properly taken care of.

Execution.—Yesterday morning, Deputy Sheriff Magnin occupied a portion of his valuable time in selling at auction several articles of household and kitchen furniture, property of one Major Whittemore, recently an attache of the revenue department in this city. The sale, we believe, was made to satisfy an execution in favor of certain parties to whom Whittemore was indebted.

Second Bloom.—There is a pear tree in the garden of Mr. Eddie White in this city now white with a second coat of blooms, having already bloomed and borne a full crop of fruit the present year. Whether any of this latter crop shall mature we think doubtful, but they will come very near it, if the frost keeps off till late in the season.

The Senatorship.—A correspondent of the Fayetteville Eagle recommends Hon. Thomas C. Fuller, of Cumberland, for the United States Senate in Abbott's place, and urges the members of the Legislature from the Cape Fear region to urge the claims of that section to the Senatorship, in the person of Cumberland's favorite son.

Counterfeiters.—A subscriber of the Sentinel has lately received from New York, one of those letters and printed notices from James Fisher & Co., professional counterfeiters, who propose to furnish him with any amount of counterfeit money. Our friend immediately sent it to us, asking us to dispose of it. We have sent it to the Mayor of the city of New York. It is difficult to detect the scoundrels but every thing should be done to effect their discovery and arrest.

Young Housewife's Counsellor and Friend.—This is the new book by Mrs. Dr. Mason, of this city. Its object and character are well expressed by the title. The author has allowed us to examine some of the advanced sheets now issuing from the press, and we feel authorized by that examination to pronounce the work a highly valuable one and one that every housekeeper will great need, and especially those who are entering upon the difficult duties of domestic life. Mrs. Mason has seemed to anticipate every difficulty which besets the pathway of a young housewife, and supplies the needed information. We hope the book, which will soon be ready for sale at the booksellers, will meet with an earnest welcome from all who need it.

The Latest Phenomenon is a fluid without sediment and without bad smell, that renews the youthful honors of the head, however time may have blanched them, repeating the hue of nature to a shade. This marvel of science is Phalon's Vitalia or Salvation for the Hair. It stands alone.

Sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers.

Wheeling, September 20.—The long and protracted strike of the iron workers has ended; the managers making no concessions.

FOREIGN.

London, September 20.—There has been a skirmish near Juery and Chatillon, on the outskirts of Paris. The Prussians now occupy Clamart, Murdon, Vilaneuve, Vannes and Fontenay. The Crown Prince is near Fontainbleau. The Prussians crossed the Seine a few miles above its confluence with the Marne.

The Prussians cite Napoleon's precedent as authority for employing prisoners on public works.

The Times' correspondent from Saarbruck on Monday says: "A sortie from Metz was ordered, but was subsequently countermanded. The French peasants in that neighborhood continue to murder German officers by picking them off with rifles. They have also inflicted damage on the enemy by cutting telegraphs."

In order to avoid complications with other nations, France has decimed the services of the Polish Volunteer Legion.

Tours, Sept. 20.—The Ministry publish the following: "The enemy has evacuated, going to Bartheheim and Essheim." Official Paris advices up to the evening of the 18th say: The Prussians made a reconnoissance near Joinville and an engagement with the French sharpshooters on the opposite bank of the Marne ensued. The Prussians were driven off.

German Uhlans occupied Versailles. It is understood that the Prussians will make Versailles their permanent headquarters.

Prussians threaten death to those repairing railroads which the Prussians destroy.

The Constitutionel gives the following answer from the King of Prussia to mediation efforts: "Whereas the great Powers did not succeed in preventing France from declaring war against Prussia, Prussia now demands her right to treat directly with France for peace; but as France has no regular government, Prussia can have no guarantee that the conditions of the treaty will be fulfilled." To settle this point, Jules Favre himself, has gone to the King's headquarters.

The vessel that was run down by a steamer a few days since in Yarmouth Roads, proves to be the schooner "Annie Kerstine;" the crew was saved.

Steinmetz was relieved to leave Frederick Charles the sole credit of reducing Metz.—Steinmetz is appointed Governor of Polsen, in Silesia.

The Prussians have a large police force throughout Alsace and Lorraine. Outbreaks at Nice and Mentone are entirely suppressed.

Bietrie, formerly Prefect of Police of Paris, writes from Wilhelmshohe, that it was impossible for the Emperor to conceal Court extravagance by a reinforcement of the civil list. It is also untrue that the Emperor has ten millions safely invested at Amsterdam. It is also untrue that the Emperor borrowed ten thousand thalers at Sedan. Bietrice adds, that his master's misfortunes should protect him from such outrageous publications.

Granville's messenger to Lord Lyons was obliged to travel in a post chaise from Rouen.—The mail service from Paris is cut in all directions.

A letter from Bismarck says: "Rest satisfied that the safety of Germany being properly secured, and the peace of the world assured. No obstacle will be placed, on the part of Germany, in the way of a termination of the war, into which she was unwillingly drawn, but from which she will never retire until the legitimate rights of her children are granted, and the integrity of the Fatherland secured, and the people of Germany rendered safe from future cruel and unnecessary conflicts and slaughter."

Tours, Sept. 20.—It is reported as the result of the meeting of Favre and the King, that the hope of a speedy peace is not abandoned. Prussia is indisposed to an armistice. If there is a peace at all, it must be settled immediately. Thiers left here this afternoon after interview with Cremieux. England received Thiers' explanations favorably and is prepared to act with Russia and Austria, if they also accept Thiers' proposition. Advices from Orleans attach great importance to the action at Soissons yesterday. The Prussians suffered much from artillery hidden in the woods. The battle lasted nearly all day, when the Prussians were compelled to retire.

It is reported that the Prussians were badly repulsed in an attempt to storm fort Du Mont Valerien, on the west side of Paris.

Two trains collided near here. Eleven were killed, including M. Darval, Editor of the Journal des Debats. Twenty-five were hurt. An enormous quantity of stores and munitions gathered here are ordered farther south.

Florence, Sept. 20.—The Italians are in force on all sides of the city except the Eastward.—The preparations for defence provide, as far as possible, for the protection of property, venerable monuments and the lives of non-combatants.

AGRICULTURAL.

HINTS TO FARMERS.

We cannot urge too strongly the importance of fall ploughing of land that is to be planted or sown with grain next spring. In hard, strong soils, there is little danger of breaking it up too finely for grain, and if hoed crops are to be put upon it next spring, the after cultivation will be very much lessened by deep and thorough ploughing this fall. We know of more than one boy who formed his first resolution to leave the farm when of age, while he was hoeing a tough, sour ploughed field, that might have been greatly improved by being turned over the previous autumn and again in the spring. Newly cleared land cannot be worked over too often before it is occupied with a crop. Working among stumps, stones, and roots is not easy or agreeable labor, but it is far better and cheaper to employ oxen or horses in killing grass, weeds, and roots, than to do it with a hoe, and especially among growing corn or potatoes. Where there are none of the incumbrances we have named, and the land has been under cultivation, then it should be ploughed in the fall for the purpose of killing weeds, and insects are giving the air and frosts of winter an opportunity of acting upon the soil which is turned up from the bottom of the furrow. If any of the members of our Club have any doubts as to whether fall ploughing will be sufficiently beneficial to pay the extra cost, let them try a portion of a field, and note the result next season.

RECIPES.

GINGER BISCUITS AND CAKES.—Two quarts of buttermilk, one teaspoon of soda, and one and a half teaspoon of cream of tartar, beat in the buttermilk; four eggs, yolks and whites beaten separately; one and a half pints of flour; add the yolks to the milk, stir in the flour lightly, and add the whites.

BAKED BREAD PUDDING.—To a pint of bread crumbs add a pint of milk, and let them soak thoroughly; add a second pint of milk, four well-beaten eggs, and salt, sugar and spice to taste, together with soda enough to correct the acidity of the bread—half a teaspoonful is enough; bake half an hour. The number of eggs is arbitrary.

GOOD PLAIN DESERT.—Boil a pint of molasses until it thickens considerably; prepare some light bread, cut about one-half inch in thickness; butter one side thinly; dip the bread into the boiled syrup as you would in making milk toast; arrange the slices one above the other on a small platter. Serve warm.

SHADE IN PASTURES.—We hope that the very warm summer just past has taught those farmers who have heretofore thought differently the benefit to cattle of a few shade-trees in their pastures. This shade-tree question in pastures has been very ably discussed in nearly all of our agricultural papers; but the humane farmers are all in the alternative, and we believe that the facts in regard to profit—to say nothing of the comfort of animals exposed to the scorching rays of the sun in summer—will be found on the same side. Those farmers who have made the too common mistake of cutting down every tree when the land is cleared should now endeavor to repair the loss by planting out a few trees this fall.—Trees from the woods or open fields will answer the purpose if carefully taken up—those of small size being preferable to large ones. Stakes should be placed by the side of each tree, to prevent blowing over, or the cattle injuring them in the first few years after removal. The artist who desires to give a picture of country life as it should be would never think of selecting a naked field in August, with a herd of cattle broiling under a noon day sun.

MULCHING OR NO MULCHING.—There are scarcely any two cultivators who will place the same value upon mulch for plants. One man writes us that his experiments this season have convinced him that the thorough and constant cultivation of the soil is far preferable to mulching; and by the same mail we received a letter from another party who had come to an exactly opposite opinion. These various statements in regard to cultivation and non-cultivation of plants prove that no general rule can be laid down for all localities and soils. Seasons also vary; and if plants are mulched in spring, and considerable rain should fall during summer, it would probably do more harm than good. Every cultivator of the soil should think for himself, and not depend entirely upon others for advice in growing different crops under his care.

A few carefully conducted experiments will usually teach us the best course to pursue, and whether mulching is preferable to frequent stirring of the soil.—Hearth and Home.

All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

10,000 POLICIES,

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh; or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 TO 550 LBS.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x0in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privilged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
